STATE AND COUNTY TAXES.

Change in the Laws Relating to Their Collection.

The County Treasurer, who is ex-officio Tax Receiver, gives notice that State and county taxes for the year 1885 are now due and payable at his office. These taxes will become delinquent on the 17th of November, and as the late Legislature made important changes in the laws, tax payers should see that they settle with the Tax Receiver at once.

The Legislature amended Section 23 of the old Act, so as to read as follows:

The Auditor shall, within three days after receiving the delinquent list, make out and deliver to the District and Prosecuting Attorney of his county, a list, duly certified by him, of all delinquencies, where the delinquent tax, exclusive of poll tax and penalties, exceeds the sum of $300, charging him therewith, and shall at the same time give notice by publication in some newspaper in the county, if there be any, and if not, then by posting notices in three public places in the county, that the said list has been deposited with the District or Prosecuting Attorney, and that unless the delinquent taxes are paid to the Treasurer, as ex-officio Tax Receiver, within twenty days from the publication or posting of such notices, action will be commenced by the District or Prosecuting Attorney for the collection of said taxes and costs."

Section 23 of the old Act is also amended to read as follows: "The District or Prosecuting Attorney of the several counties of this State are hereby authorized and directed immediately after the time specified in the preceding section, to commence action in the name of the State of Nevada against the person or persons so delinquent, and against the real estate and improvements assessed, so delinquent, and against all owners, known or unknown, to recover such delinquent taxes, in all cases where the delinquency, exclusive of poll tax and penalties, exceeds the sum of $300, such actions may be commenced in the county where the assessment is made, before any court in said county having jurisdiction of the amount thereof, without regard to the location of the land or other property, as to townships cities or Districts, and without regard to the residence of the person or persons or owner or owners, known or unknown."

Section 37 of the old Act is repealed, and the following substituted: Immediately after the last Monday in November of each year, the County Treasurer and ex-officio Tax Receiver shall advertise the property, upon which such delinquent taxes are a lien, for sale, in all cases where the delinquent tax exclusive of poll taxes and penalties does not exceed the sum of $300, such sale to be made at the Court house door of the county, on the third Monday in January next succeeding; such notices shall be published in a newspaper, if there be one in the county, at least once a week from the date thereof until the time of sale, and if there be no newspaper in the county, such notice shall be posted in at least three public places in each township where delinquent property is situated, such posting to be at least twenty days prior to the day of sale; provided that the cost of such publication shall not exceed two dollars for each case of delinquency."

It will be seen that the changes make a distinction between cases where the taxes are over $300 and those which are less than the amount. When the amount is over $300 the District Attorney is allowed some discretion as to the time of commencing suit, but where the taxes are less than $300, the Tax Receiver must advertise the property immediately after the third Monday in November, without the formality of bringing suit. In the case of the large delinquents the Act is merely directory, while in the small cases it is mandatory. In the case of the big tax payers it is may, but where the small ones are involved it is must.

John Reid, managing editor of the New York Times, estimates that 50,000 Irishmen voted for Blaine in New York.

It is rumored that Garland will not long remain in Cleveland's Cabinet.
